City/State/Zip: _____

Parent/Guardian: _____ Phone: _____

Name of school currently attending: _____

Graduation date: _____ College or post secondary school: _____

Intended major or area of interest: _____

Please attach the following to your application:

1. Include a typewritten community service resume, including the names of organizations or projects, the capacity in which you served these organizations/projects, your dates of service, and the number of hours/week and weeks/year of service for each activity.

Note: Mandatory school service days will be given less consideration, as those events are essentially required events in which entire groups are participating. The focus of this scholarship is to award self-starting individuals; therefore, leadership roles will be given more consideration.

2. Include a recommendation from a representative of one of the organizations served.
3. A one-paragraph response to each of the following questions:
 - a. Why do you think it is important to be involved in community service?
 - b. What have you learned/gained from a community service activity that you didn't expect?

All applications must be sent to:

Freeman Community Foundation, PO Box 412, Freeman, SD, 57029.

All requirements listed above must be met or it may result in disqualification of the applicant.

The FCF retains the right to decline all applications, if they are deemed unqualified.

Applicants will be notified of determination by April 15.
