

	POLICY
	Social Media Comment Policy

We welcome comments to the social media platforms for the South Dakota Community Foundation (SDCF).

These platforms intend to inform and engage with fans, friends and other businesses, entities or people interested in SDCF.

Users are encouraged to submit comments, questions and concerns, but please note this is a moderated online discussion site.

Once posted, SDCF reserves the right to delete submissions that contain vulgar language and/or personal attacks of any kind.

Further, SDCF also reserves the right to delete comments that:

- Contain spam, advertising, solicitations or include links to other sites;
- Are clearly off topic or disruptive;
- Are obscene, vulgar or sexually explicit. This includes masked words (), acronyms and abbreviations;
- Are chain letters, pyramid schemes or fraudulent or deceptive messages;
- Promote particular services, products, or political organizations or campaigns;
- Infringe on copyrights or trademarks;
- Advocate illegal activity;
- Violate any policies of SDCF.

Please note that comments made by users expressed on this site do not reflect the opinions and official position of SDCF.